Featured Movie: The Substance

Date and Time: Sunday, November 3 7:00 pm - 9:25 pm

Address: 5319 50th Ave. S.

Prepare for a bold and unforgettable journey with The Substance—the most talked-about horror satire of the year!

Showtimes:

- Sunday & Monday, November 3 & 4 at 7PM
Rated: 18A | Runtime: 142 minutes

Don't miss this award-winning, genre-defying film from writer-director Coralie Fargeat (Revenge). The Substance is a twisted, satirical ride through Hollywood's dark side, starring Demi Moore in a career-best performance and Margaret Qualley in a role that will leave you speechless.

About the Film:

Elisabeth Sparkle (Demi Moore), a fading Hollywood star, undergoes a black-market procedure to regain her youth. One injection is all it takes to be reborn as the bold and brash Sue (Margaret Qualley). But there's one catch: every week, the pair must split their time between bodies. As ambitions rise and lines blur, what starts as a shot at reclaiming fame becomes a knock-down, drag-out battle for identity and control.

Reviews Are In:

"An instant horror classic. The most sickly entertaining theatrical experience of the year." – IndieWire

"A total knockout. Without a doubt the performance of Demi Moore's career." – Vogue

"Jaw-dropping. Coralie Fargeat works with the flair of a grindhouse Kubrick." – Variety

Why You Need to See It:

Bold, audacious, and utterly unforgettable, The Substance blends biting satire with shocking body-horror in a story that echoes The Picture of Dorian Gray and Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, wrapped in Hollywood glitz. This is not just a movie—it's a cinematic experience.

Get ready for a wild, jaw-dropping ride that will leave you gasping, shrieking, laughing, and cheering.
